

I think the Do Not Call Program should remain unchanged. Unwanted solicitations at home should be regulated and in the case of the elderly this would serve to protect them from being exploited.